SKUNK STAMPEDES ALL HUNTERS AT RUDY'S

Officials of Coursing Tournament Are Initiated to Local Duck Club.

The entertainment of the National Coursing tournament, Sunday, at the Rudy duck club, proved to be a hot reception for the visitors. Wallace Brantford furnished the entertainment for the party out, into which were crowded "Fat" Schuler, H. C. Keefe, Sam Hand, John McKee, and James Scott. The party arrived at the duck club about 2 o'clock Sunday morning and retired for a few hours sleep previous to going out shooting. In about an hour the sound emanating from the clubhouse was that of a large sawmill working overtime. The last one to be fought was shut the clubhouse door and a big skunk made an early morning call. He carried an extra large bottle with him, and according to "Fat" Schuler, the smell was not that of carnation pink, either. Capt. Brantford was the first man to be assailed from his sleep, but by any odds but the skunk was very careful in walking about, but was very liberal otherwise. Brantford shouted: "Hut! Hut! Hut! Get out of here!" and pulled the cover over his head. "Fat" Schuler went out an open window, and Sam Hand, John McKee, and James Scott, through the door, believing the cabin was on fire. Automatic Bill Parker rolled out on the floor and the skunk took him by the neck and went up which could be heard for a mile. Lights were procured as soon as possible and the skunk was surrounded, but the skunk would not come out, while the men were on the outside shivering with cold. McKee and Hand, not knowing the way to the land and into a nearby slough and looked like two drenched rats. Brantford had left his gun in the automobile, which he had left in the driveway, and he went to see which should kill the skunk. Brantford drew the long straw, and as he had killed skunks fifty years ago he was going to do the job up. Automatic Bill Parker wanted him to shoot the skunk in the head in order that the skin might be made into a rug. Brantford insisted that he get close enough to blow the skunk into atoms. A light was set in the doorway and Brantford went to the window. He got into a position, the skunk took aim, and just as he pulled the trigger the skunk jumped and the load went into a heap of new rubber boots. A howl went up from the members, but Brantford said he would kill that skunk if he had to shoot it down with a club. The skunk made a dash for the door and Brantford shot him as he went out. The members crawled into the cabin through the window and closed the door, but could not remain in the house, so dressed and built a large bonfire outside, where they patiently awaited the skunk's return. Visitors swear that it was a planned joke, and it is safe to say they will not go duck hunting here again. Keefe says it will take ten gallons of ammonia and carbolic acid to cleanse the cabin.

SOME EXCUSES WHY THE UNIVERSITY LOST GAME

The University football team is expected to arrive from its Los Angeles trip this morning. The team will be met at the depot by a large squad of university enthusiasts and will be escorted to school. The team played a very poor game at Los Angeles, losing to the University of California by a score of 24 to 0. This would place the Utah team in the running as the favorites, but with a week's rest, the team is expected to be in better shape for the game with the defeat of the local team, but with a week's rest, the team is expected to be in better shape for the game.

How can a self-respecting Republican vote for HODGSON, SMITH, FERNSTROM or HALL? Have they not all been working like beavers against Dr. Plummer and for Dick Morris? Is this the proper spirit in which they are asking for Republican votes? Wouldn't it be better to become Hodgson, Smith, Fernstrom and Hall to have remained neutral on the general ticket? It is an easy thing to do this. If you do not put an end to fusion with Democrats to year, Harry Joseph and Fernstrom will be forcing Democrats on the Republican ticket next year. REFUDIATE IT NOW!

GRAYHOUNDS WILL RUN FOR EXPENSE MONEY

A match race for $500 between Tres Bien, owned by W. T. Bartlett of Denver, and Rink Lady, owned by Handy and Williams of Fairbault, Minn., brought out considerable discussion among the greyhound men Sunday. The race is to take place some time today, and from all appearances there will be considerable money wagered on the result. While these two dogs did not figure in any of the finals, they are considered among the best in the country. Each owner is confident that his dog is the best and the friendly meeting will be for expense money home.

ENGLISH RAILWAY MEN ARE IN FAVOR OF STRIKE

LONDON, Nov. 3.—At a meeting of railroad men held tonight at Ebert hall and attended by deputations from all parts of the United Kingdom, Richard Bell, M. P., general secretary of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants and leader of the strike movement, announced the result of the ballot taken among members of the society on the question of a strike. Mr. Bell said the society had 97,545 members at the end of September and that many of the men who had joined recently joined in the ballot. He announced that 88,124 votes had been returned, of which 79,927 were in favor of striking, while 8,197 were opposed to so doing. The remainder of the ballots were spoiled, but a majority of these were in favor of striking. Continuing, Mr. Bell said that the executive committee of the society was well dressed at this afternoon's session, but he resolved that no further reference should be made to the situation pending the interview November 8 between Mr. Lloyd George, president of the Board of Trade, and representatives of the society. He said he hoped the mandate would not be given to the society, but that if it became necessary to take this step the men would stand by their colors. The meeting passed a resolution heartily pledging its support to any action the executive committee might deem necessary.

Evelyn Groompton, one of England's foremost speakers on the subject of unfulfilling physiological mysteries to children. Miss Seavert Callipert of Athens, Greece, who overcame the "falseness" of Athens' repulsive attitude toward women and secured the first B. A. degree given a Greek woman, spoke on education for women. She was accompanied by a woman and more industrial education in public schools. Rev. Joseph McCarthy of Kalamazoo, Mich., counseled girls to defend their purity even with the pistol, if necessary, and told of the danger of allowing girls to travel alone.

OF OLD ENGLAND

Four Great Rulers of Europe to Gather Soon at Windsor Castle.

SPLENDOR OF BANQUET TO SURPASS DESCRIPTION

King Edward Hopes to Still More Closely Link England and Germany.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—England is to be invaded by royalty during November. The German Emperor and Empress, who, it is said, will be accompanied by the Imperial Chancellor, Prince von Buelow, and to whose visit some political significance is attached, will arrive here on November 11 and will spend a week as guests of King Edward and Queen Alexandra at Windsor castle, which has been considerably altered and improved for their reception. A staff of several hundred workmen are busy in and around the historic residence of the British sovereign, and have already greatly altered the appearance of the grounds and building. A series of most elaborate entertainments has been arranged, including the state performances and a great state banquet. The Emperor and Empress will meet many of the leaders of Great Britain's political and social world. The banquet, if plans do not miscarry, will surpass in splendor anything of the kind before attempted for a long time in the history of the country. King Edward is desirous of showing the greatest honor to his nephew, in the hope of forging another link in the chain which is to draw the two countries closer together.

Will Spend Time Hunting.

The days will be spent by the Emperor and King and the other guests hunting in Windsor's great park, but the royal visitors will have to spare one day from sport to pay a visit of state to the city of London and be entertained by the Lord Mayor at luncheon.

This visit to the city is the cause of some apprehension, for a section of the English Socialists has declared its intention of making hostile demonstrations along the line of the procession, but the police have been forewarned. The general public may, however, be relied upon to give the grandson of Queen Victoria the warmest welcome. The anarchists are never active in England, but, to make it doubly sure, the Soho quarter of the city, their refuge in England, is being closely watched by English and foreign detectives, and the whereabouts of all dangerous persons is already known to Scotland Yard, and their movements will be followed.

Other royal visitors are coming before the German sovereign, but will remain longer, so that at least one of the great entertainments at Windsor castle will shelter no fewer than four ruling European monarchs—the German Emperor and the Kings of England, Spain and Norway. The Kings of Spain and Norway, with their consorts and their infant heirs to their respective thrones, are coming on official business, but with all the members of the royal family will go to Sandringham for the celebration of the King's birthday, November 9.

Another event of the month that will bring together many royalties is the wedding of Don Carlos of Spain and Princess Louise of Orleans, which will take place at Good Norton, the English country house of the Duke of Devonshire, the head of the Bourbon Orleans family. The King and Queen of Spain, the Queen of Portugal and the Duke and Duchess of Aosta will all be present at the ceremony and receptions, for which elaborate arrangements are being made. The church of the family estate is being cleaned and renovated, and all the country houses in the neighborhood are in the hands of decorators.

MEN ALL KISS THE BRIDE, THEN TAKE UP COLLECTION

Unable in any other way to show their regard for the bride, the groomsmen of the party who with her husband on Sunday afternoon boarded the Denver & Rio Grande train at Castle Gate, Utah, and headed for the wedding at Castle Gate, and her popularity was evinced by the swarm of friends that gathered to bid her good-bye. The bride, Miss Louise, was escorted by her groom, Mr. George Crouse, the bridegroom, who seemed proud rather than jealous of the bride, and the subject of the wedding was Mr. Seymour Oliphant.

Mr. and Mrs. Crouse will spend a few days in Salt Lake visiting friends and relatives, and then return to their home in Castle Gate to make their home.

POLITICAL TENSION MAY DEVELOP FEUD

Lieut.-Gov. Sanders of Louisiana and Son of Senator Caffery Deadly Enemies.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3.—The firm reply of Lieut.-Gov. J. W. Sanders today to what has been universally accepted as a challenge for a duel by Donelson Caffery, son of the late United States Senator Donelson Caffery, has created a dramatic political situation in Louisiana. Tonight another matter entirely foreign to the personal combat has increased the tension. The practically rival proclamations of the Lieutenant-Governor and of Gov. N. C. Blanchard to the coming extra session of the Legislature were brought face to face by the Governor's reply to Caffery today from the East.

Is Ready for Combat.

"I am prepared to meet that responsibility," Mr. Caffery knows where to find me."

Proceeding this statement, two representatives of each man in the dispute had held conference, and Mr. Sanders' friends had declared firmly they would not accept a challenge in accordance with the dueling code, because the Lieutenant-Governor could not violate the State law making dueling a crime.

The dueling code, which followed the State law, was the basis of Mr. Caffery with handbills stating that satisfaction had been refused him by Mr. Sanders.

These handbills declared that the Lieutenant-Governor had called some of Mr. Caffery's statements untrue, and the discretion of both the Lieutenant-Governor and Mr. Caffery is relied on to prevent a personal encounter. There are fears, however, that friends of the disputants may be drawn into a serious quarrel.

Governor Blanchard, before leaving for the East, announced that he would probably annul Mr. Sanders' proclamation, which placed corporation control before the extra session of the Legislature.

No wife of a man who works for day's wages will vote for Fernstrom or Hall for the Council. These men think $1.50 a day sufficient for the man who toils. If they have a voice in the Council for the next year, they will establish $1.50 as the scale for the city. This will reach other lines of work. A general trimming down, in face of high prices for living, will bring suffering to thousands of homes.

ROBERT S. AMMEN OF KANSAS CITY SPENT SUNDAY IN SALT LAKE, A GUEST AT THE HOTEL MAN AND AN EXTENSIVE TRAVELER, IN HIS MEANDERINGS FAILS NOT TO "CATCH THE MANNERS OF THE PEOPLE, LIVING AS THEY LIVE."

"Several times in years past," Mr. Ammen said, "I have passed through Salt Lake, but this is the first time I have been here for a visit in the city. Today I rode over the greater part of the city, and visited Salt Lake Beach in the afternoon. I am a traveler, and I have nearly all the Western cities, and I am free to say that there is but one Salt Lake, and it is right here. The natural site of all that is desired in a city, the attractiveness it has few rivals anywhere. The improvements that are being made in Salt Lake are of a character to last for all time. This is the result of the planning of the municipal government in the hands of capable, far-seeing business men."

"Salt Lake, as I viewed it today, impressed me as being in a transition state, and that this is the case in all the growing cities in the country, and it is at such a time that a city's affairs are most interesting. The productive nature of the country, the honest business men, Salt Lake, in the future, will be the home of a great many rich people. The productive nature of the country, the honest business men, Salt Lake, in the future, will be the home of a great many rich people. The productive nature of the country, the honest business men, Salt Lake, in the future, will be the home of a great many rich people."

Understand the city has been held back by a non-progressive class, aided by a sympathetic following of poisonous politicians, and that this obstacle to progress is being brushed aside, and the enterprising, patriotic Americans are in control of affairs and are doing first-class work in making Salt Lake an American city. This is a beautiful residential city, as the streets are capable of being made the most beautiful in the country, and that the time is coming when Salt Lake will be the largest inland city on this continent. The average American does not care a cent for the future of Salt Lake, but such as to insure for Salt Lake a business center of first importance for all future time."

DR. HYATT MAKES NO PREDICTION FOR MONDAY, BUT FAIR WEATHER IS LIKELY.

The people of Zion might well have shouldered the Doctor in a jolly good fellow," because of the excellent weather of Sunday. But the weather doctor has been serving an excellent brand of weather for the past week and local residents are sometimes a little forgetful. Sunday afternoon was ideal for walking, and the weather was just what the city needed.

The Dooly block oracle, Dr. Hyatt, is getting a little chasty these days on the accuracy with which he is predicting fair weather, but some day he expects to miss it, as he has before. He has declared that the weather is just what the city needed, and that the weather is just what the city needed.

Prophet Lays Off.

The weather machine is a most delicate instrument. It is so accurately adjusted that it requires no attention on Sunday. Hence the Dooly block oracle, all assisting in the weather machine, will hold the six days of the week, do not appear on Sunday except for a short time to take observations at 6 a. m. and 6 p. m. The only station of the weather machine does not run on Sunday is the "prophet" part. This is closed, hence Zion will not see the weather machine on Sunday. The weather machine will be closed on Sunday. The weather machine will be closed on Sunday.

HUSBAND AND WIFE MYSTERIOUSLY SLAIN

PASSAIC, N. J., Nov. 2.—Rafael Ruffano and his wife, Antoinette, were murdered at Garfield, N. J., last night. Early today the body of the woman was found on the walk in front of the grocery store which the couple owned. In the kitchen, back of the store, Ruffano's body was found. The police are investigating the case.

ELDER G. A. SMITH TALKS ON MORMONISM

He Says Other Churches Are Adopting the Faith Little by Little.

Sunday was observed by the members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints as fast day. For this reason the usual afternoon services at the Tabernacle were not held. A special service for tourists and visitors, consisting of a number of organ selections, rendered by J. J. McClellan, the Tabernacle organist, and an address by Elder G. A. Smith, composed the program, which began at 3 o'clock.

Elder Smith began his address by saying that the faith which he represented had been misunderstood. Many are of the opinion, he declared, that the doctrines of the church are taught by Joseph F. Smith, the prophet. This, he said, is erroneous, as the doctrines of the church are revealed by God to the prophet, who transmits them to his people.

The speaker said that the Mormon church is growing in power and numbers each day. "Other churches are adopting our faith little by little," Joseph Smith declared. "The fusionists have placed on these tickets men of the opposite party—men nominated by opposing parties. Only Americans and Socialists can vote a straight ticket in these four wards. How do you like to be forced to vote for an opposing candidate, Mr. Republican or Mr. Democrat? Does it set well with you? IF IT DOES NOT, CUT OUT THE FUSION NOMINEES."
